History

Forty-Five excited and happy Freshman seated themselves in the first two rows of seats in the Assembly, the first day of High School, September 5, 1950.

Our first big event of the year was Initiation!! We were divided up into eight groups: Cavemen, Hill Billies, Men from Mars, Diaper Babies, Pajama Babies, Clowns, Little Boy Blues, and Indians. Our hair was washed and uncombed, we really looked a sight. After a march down town the Sophomores then took us through the "Chamber of Horrors." Following that the Sophomores gave us a dance, which we later returned.

We were sorry to lose Bernice Ingram, Harland Schuller, Wayne Long, during the year. Gary Komp joined us later in the year.

We were very proud to have Dorothy Norris as our candidate for Carnival Queen.

There were fifteen girls that joined the F. H. A. Eighteen boys joined F. F. A.

Four boys turned out for Football, five for Basketball, and seven for Baseball. For a new sport for Entiat, Boxing was brought to us under the direction of Mr. Dennis, several Freshman boys turned out for that new and exciting sport.

All three of the High School cheer leaders were from the Freshman class. They were: Glennis Carberry, Lloyd Jackson, Betty Olin, the kids really had a lot of pep and school spirit.

Georgia King was President of our class both semesters, and she led us through a very successful year.

As Sophomores we started off the year by Initiating the Freshmen. We were no longer little "greenies" but "High and Mighty Sophomores."

Seven boys turned out for Football, six for Basketball, and eight for Baseball. Dorothy Norris was one of the first members of our class to be a Majorette for the high school band.

Thirteen members were in the Honor Society, having a "B" average or higher.

One of the most exciting events of the year was our Sophomore plays, they were: "According to Doyle," "A Sitter for Sonny," "His First Dress Suit," and "Papa said No," "According to Doyle," and "A Sitter for Sonny," were chosen to be given at the Drama Festival in Wenatchee.

Claudia Davis was chosen for our Carnival Candidate in our Sophomore year. Glennis Carberry and Lee Roy Hensley led us through a successful Sophomore year.

We started out with thirty-one students in our Junior year. Donna Huffman and Shirley Cassity moved away. Sharlene Bradley had to drop because of illness. Fred Vance dropped, and Marlene Raspet joined.

The class was very pleased and happy with our class rings from Jostens.

We were very happy when Claudia Davis was crowned as Carnival Queen in our Junior year.

Our Junior Play, "Too Sweet for Sixteen," under the direction of Miss Tenney, Student director Lee Roy Hensley, and Assistant director Lloyd Jackson, was a huge success.

The Junior boys were active in sports this year, nine turned out for Football, three played on the "A" squad in Basketball, and seven turned out for Baseball. Robert Cowan got the Inspirational Award for Baseball, and Ronnie Franklin got the Inspirational Award for Football.

Participating in other activities were, Cleo Whitehall, and Lloyd Jackson who played tennis. Lee Roy Hensley was Song Leader for the first semester.

There were seven members in the Honor Society this year.

The E-Hi Breeze rolled right along under the Editorship of Gena Dissmore, and with the help of our advisor Miss Tenny and the rest of the class.

Jeanne Mills was chosen as a Majorette along with Dorothy Norris.

Girls chosen for the Pep Club were: Gena Dissmore, Janice West, Claudia Davis, Cleo Whitehall, Betty Olin, Betty Carter, and Donna Huffman.

Our big event of the year was our Junior Prom, with the theme "Evening In Paris" with it's heavy perfume, soft lights, and rustling gowns. Lovely Queen Dixie Galbraith and her Princesses Dean Hall and Donna Vogt made a lovely royalty. Crown Bearer, Charles Cos, and Scepter Bearer Christie McQuarrie, the splendid evening haunted the dancers as they waltzed to the music of "Al Winters" Orchestra. We're sure the Prom of "53" will be remembered by all.

Prophecy

Round and round and round she goes, and where she stops nobody knows. But stop she did and we shall see of things that are and things to be. The dreams we've cherished and I have heard tell, the hopes that have perished that we all know so well----------.

Who is that we see in the chorus, in a New York night club------well it's Dorothy Norris.

Who is that beside her in all the frills, nobody else but Jeanne Mills.

Here's a lady wrestler with lots of muscles----take a second look, it's Rita Russel.

In Hollywood there are lots of stars, some that sing and play their guitars, but best of all is not William Boyd, of course it's Jackson, and we mean Lloyd.

There's bars all around her, she's eating peanuts----here's a clue her names Pat Hughes, she's the animal feeder at the Entiat Zoo.

There's a ballet teacher, he's as graceful as can be. There's only one who can do those pivots, it's Bob Cowan as we can see.

Here we are in a pickle factory, there's someone sitting at the tables. It's that Cleo Whitehall working madly, decorating pickle labels.

There he goes down the floor reaching toward a basket, of course Don Chappell's packing cherries, you didn't have to ask it.

Who's that slipping cherries in his basket, the boss is getting frantic. Oh, golly, whiz! It's Janice West, now isn't that romantic.

Who is that gambling in Reno Nevada, and will never lose----nobody else but Bill Hughes.

In a Paris Salon is a gal you all know, modelling the latest style, is Shirley Carmichael the show.

On a chicken farm in the Entiat Valley Fair, we find Donna Huffman and Freddie, a happily married couple.

Claudia Davis is now living in a small igloo, catching fish and trapping is all she can do.

Shirley Cassity hasn't much time for a lot, which her TV set and her fifth little tot.

Gary Kanzler's the big wheel on his Dad's apple ranch, he married a girl and her name isn't Blanche.

A nurse in a home for the aged you'll see, Gena Dissmore is as happy, as happy can be.

A helping hand at the Chief Joseph Dam site, you'll find Marjory Packwood doing all right.

Chuck Asher has gone on to marimba fame----selling cars on the side, and also his name.

Melvin Harris moved on to greater renown, he's working for Ringling Bros. circus, as a first rate clown.

Driving trucks for a living and getting around, Fred Montgomery is once in a while seen in town.

Don Petersen made heavy weight news----the champion wrestler in years, he wears size 20 shoes.

Tony Gojenola you hear on Saturday afternoons, singing opera leads off a small "tycoon."

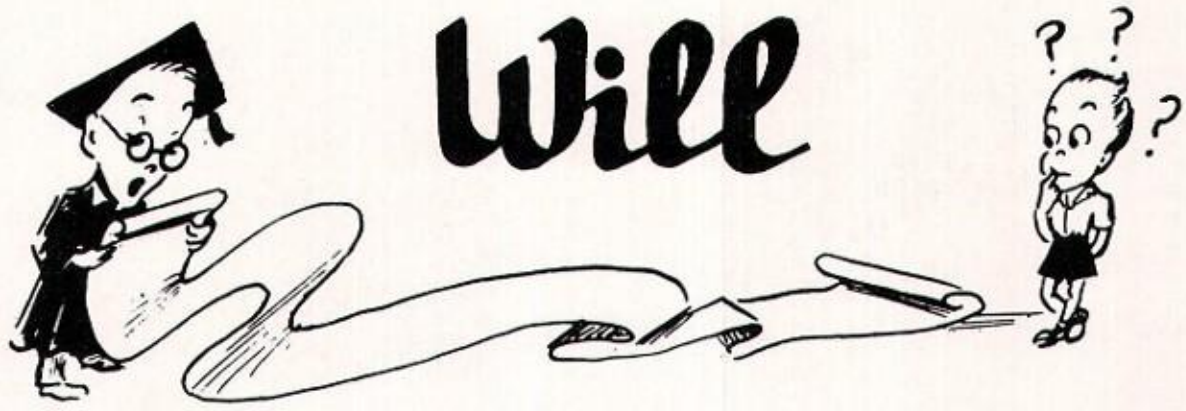
Ronnie Franklin is still working in the station, pumping gas and fixing tires for his education.

Marlene Raspet now lives at Chelan, checking bathing beauties, all she can.

Making concrete blocks is the business he's in, he owns his own factory--Earl Goman's the king pin.

Lee Roy Hensley owns his own grocery store---keeping house for Marjory is a great chore.

Rush Roundy digs potatoes day and night----to keep well fed for his dear little wife.



We, the Senior Class of 1954, being of unsound minds and poor memories, do hereby will our unknown abilities and properties to the following:

We, the Senior Class will to the oncoming Freshmen the old scarred up desks that have served us so well.

To the Sophomores, we leave our ability to skip class and get away with it to anyone who is brave enough to try it, also all the papers and pencils scattered hither and yon.

To the Juniors, we leave the lockers in hopes they can put more in them then we could. (There just isn't room enough for everything)

To the Janitors, we leave our little box of belongings that they've picked up in the halls, also the gum wrappers, school papers, notes, rubber bands, and last but not least our faithful BOOKS.

To the Faculty we leave our appreciation for the things they they tried to teach us.

For our last will and testament, this is what we, the individuals leave:

I, Marge Packwood, will my ability to know gossip and keep it to myself to Keith Martin.

I, Dorothy Norris, will my shy and quiet ways around the boys to Beverley Allen.

I, Lloyd Jackson, will my Rock Hudson build to Ted Potter

I, Melvin Harris, will my ability to tear the transmission out of a car to anyone who is smart enough to do so.

I, Cleo Whitehall, will my ability to never turn red when embarassed to Patty Eisenhower.

I, Gena Dissmore, will my "Great Brain" to Steve De Camp.

I, Marlene Raspet, will my ability to break-up and make-up to Sandra Schultz.

I, Shirley Carmichael, will my ability to be sophisticated to Peggy Long.

I, Bill Hughes, will my ability to leave the girls alone to Ron Richards.

I, Janice West, will my height to Ted Potter.

I, Rush Roundy, will my shyness to Dennis Parcher.

I, Donna Huffman, will my ability to catch a man and keep him to Janice Wortman.

I, Tony Gojenola, will to anyone who is lucky enough, my ability to go steady with a Freshman girl.

I, Shirley Cassity, will my ability to "Love 'em and Leave 'em" to Delores Cavin.

I, Bob Cowan, will my literature assignments to the dogs. It's more fit for them.

I, Don Chappell, will my ability to play basketball to Robert Copeland.

I, Rita Russell, will my quiet ways to Donna Rippie.

I, Ronnie Franklin, will my ability to play the clarinet to Kenny Davis.

I, Earl Goman, will my Arts & Crafts hammer to the person who can throw it the farthest.

I, Pat DuPius, will my ability to ask questions to any girl who can stop talking long enough to ask them.

I, Jeanne Mills, will my roudiness to Raymond Wolf.

I, Don Petersen, will my ability to get one girl after another to Ted Whitehall.

I, Claudia Davis, will my Marilyn Monroe figure to Grace Montgomery.

I, Gary Kanzler, will my ability to agree on everything to Randy Auvil.

I, Fred Montgomery, will my English workbook to any Junior who is smart enough to fill it out.

I, Chuck Asher, will my ability to be a "Lady Killer" to Lynn Hanaan.

I, Lee Roy Hensley, will my ability to play the Bass Drum to anyone smart enough to "Beat it!"

Junior News

The Junior Class of '54 is the smallest class in high school. Because of it's size the class found it necessary to work hard to carry out all the activities with quite a flourish.

The Junior play was a 3-act farce named "Have A Heart." The cast was small but because of the fast moving plot which kept the audience entertained and a happy ending which pleased everyone, the play was a great success. The characters were as follows:

Ted Watson	Ron Richards
Peggy Watson	Vonnie Brotherton
Lou Mansfield	Betty Dissmore
Bo Larson	Randy Auvil
Fritzi Vining	Carol Wilson
Mark Andrews	Lynn Hanan

In the athletic field we placed three men on the basketball team, two men on the baseball team, and one each on the tennis and track teams. Our class advisors were Mrs. Kinzel and Mr. Denham.

Our prom theme was "Outer Space." Queen Donna's throne was a half moon while Princesses Claudia and Janice were seated on stars. The gym had murals around the outside walls with space scenes on them, while the refreshment stands were space refueling stations. Stands with cardboard figures of space ships and space men on them were scattered about the floor. To follow along with the theme star shaped and space ship shaped cookies were served along with the "atomo juice" punch. The music was very good and everyone had a good time.

History

During our Junior year the Girls Club started choosing an outstanding girl each month, in which she would wear a bracelet, and she then would be identified as "The Girl of the Month." These girls have been Girl-Of-The-Month out of our class: Janice West, Marjory Packwood, Gena Dissmore, Pat DuPius, and Marlene Roundy. Lee Roy Hensley and Ronnie Franklin led us through a successful Junior year as our Presidents.

While starting high school with forty-five students, twenty-seven will graduate. Janice West, Marjory Packwood, Rush Roundy, Lloyd Jackson, Claudia Davis, coming from Ardenvoir have completed all twelve years together. Chuck Asher, Gary Kanzler, Robert Cowan, Don Chappell, Bill Hughes, Pat Hughes, Gena Dissmore, and Cleo Whitehall, all completed twelve years together in Entiat.

Arnold Goodell and Earl Goman joined us. Arnold Goodell, Betty Carter, Duane Allen, and Marlene Rasped dropped during the year.

One of the first events of the year was the Carnival, in which we were very proud to have Pat Hughes as our Candidate.

Nine boys turned out for Football, seven for Basketball, and several for Baseball. Lee Roy Hensley was Captain for Football, and Tony Gojenolla received the Inspirational Award for Football. Six girls and one boy turned out for Tennis.

Ronnie Franklin and Shirley Carmichael were song leaders for the student body for the year.

Our next big event was the Christmas Dance, with the theme, "Night Before Christmas," everyone who attended had a wonderful time.

Our Senior Play, "The Big Blow Up" under the direction of Mr. Wall, and Student Director Rita Russell, was a big success, and everyone enjoyed it as much as we enjoyed putting it on.

There were five members in the Honor Society. Pep Club members were: Janice West, Gena Dissmore, Cleo Whitehall, Marjory Packwood, Shirley Carmichael, and Claudia Davis.

Janice West was chosen to represent the school in the Daughters of the American Revolution contest. Cleo Whitehall was chosen to represent our school and community in the Washington State Apple Blossom Festival; Cleo really made a charming Princess. Next came the choosing of the Prom royalty; and we were pleased when Donna Huffman was selected Queen and Claudia Davis and Janice West were selected as her Princesses. Each year the E-Club chooses a girl to be "Sweetheart," this year Cleo Whitehall was chosen.

Girls who have been Girl of the Month are: Janice West, Betty Carter, Donna Huffman, Cleo Whitehall, and Rita Russell.

Our class Presidents, Chuck Asher and Tony Gojenola, led us through another successful year.

We would like to mention that Mrs. Albin is the only teacher still with us that taught us in grade school. She taught us in the First Grade and in the Fifth Grade.

For everyone to see is the "54" which appears on Numeral Mountain.

The Senior Class will always remember the four happy years they spent at GOOD OLE' E..H..S..

Sophomore News

We came to school the first day feeling like great big Sophomores and were feeling good because we weren't little Froshies again. The officers for the year were:

Alfred Keeler	President	Gary McDonald
Jim Fordon	Vice-President	Alfred Keeler
Barbara McCarrell	Secretary	Mona Johnson
Beverley Olin	Treasurer	Alvin Shannon
Mickey Acres	Reporter	Chuck Minnick
Alvin Shannon	S. C. Rep.	Virginia Griffith
Arlene Vradenburg	Social Chairman	Troy Taylor

We elected Mona Johnson for our Carnival candidate and we are very proud to say she was crowned Queen.

We initiated the Freshmen and had a grand time though we did not take them through town. We gave them a dance and it was a great success. Some of our other activities for the year were: The class went skating and enjoyed ourselves very much. We aslo went sleigh riding and had lots of fun there. We gave three plays and they were enjoyed by the public very much. They were: "Not Such a Goose," "The Mystery of the Silver Backed Hairbrush," and "Kitty, Kitty, Kitty," our plays were directed by Mrs. Kinzel. Our advisors for the year were Mr. Merriman and Mrs. Richards, and they led us through a very successful year.

Freshmen News

The year started out by the Senior girls giving the girls a Big Sister Tea. We thought it was very nice of them, and we enjoyed it very much. The initiation, sponsored by the Sophomores was quite comical. In October they gave us a Welcome Dance and then in November we gave them a return dance. Our carnival candidate was Janice Wortman. We all agree she made a very nice princess though we would have liked to have seen her as queen. The Frosh girls gave a tea for the faculty, December 15, 1953, and it was very successful. The Freshman class was very active during the year, as we presented various assemblies, attended rolling skating parties, and had a very enjoyable year. The officers for the year were:

Buford Rice, Tom Jones	President	Peg Bittleston
Floyd Gibson	Vice President	Bill Smart
Barbara Prather	Secretary	Ted Potter
Gordy Knipher	Treasurer	Sandra Schultz
Bill Smart	Sergeant of Arms	Kennie Davis
Lynn Gorman	Reporter	Ann Thomason
Ted Potter	S.C.R.	Keith Martin

We think that they did a fine job. This is the first year the girls have been able to belong to Girls Club. We are proud of the fact that some have won their service awards. The boys of our class were very active in Ski team, Basketball, Football, and Baseball. Several girls and boys turned out for Tennis as well. We are looking forward to next year when we will be "high and mightily Sophomores."
